Frequently Asked Questions AeroSports Scarborough FAQ Everything you need to know about visiting AeroSports Scarborough—from jump socks to birthday parties, special events, and more. Where Are We Located? 1120 Birchmount Rd, Scarborough, ON M1K 5G4 We have locations across the globe. You can find your local park using our park locator on our website. General Park Information Are Aerosports jump socks required? Yes, Aerosports socks are required at all locations for safety and hygiene reasons. All locations have jump socks available for purchase. Jump socks are reusable and feature special grip patterns to prevent slipping. Do you have a weight limit? Our trampolines have a 300-pound weight limit for safety. This ensures optimal performance and safety of our equipment for all jumpers. Are waivers required? Can they be filled out online? Waivers are required for all guests, including non-jumpers and spectators. Online waivers can be completed before arrival, reducing check-in time. Children under 18 require a parent/guardian signature. Do spectators have to pay to watch jumpers? Non-jumpers and spectators are never charged admission. Comfortable viewing areas are available for parents and guardians. Do your jump cards expire? No, jump cards never expire and can be shared among jumpers. They are perfect for gifts or families with multiple children. Age & Safety Policies Can I leave my child(ren) unattended? Children under 16 cannot be left unattended. Those 16+ may jump independently once waivers are completed. Can my small child come to the park? Children who can walk independently may jump. Toddlers are welcome but must be supervised and follow safety instructions. Special Programs & Events What is Glow? Glow is our glow-in-the-dark jumping experience every Tuesday 4–8PM, and Friday/Saturday 6–10PM. Lights, lasers, and music create a dance-party atmosphere. Jumpers should wear a glow t-shirt or white shirt. Do you honour access cards? Yes! Cardholders receive 50% off admission, and support workers jump free. Services & Amenities Do you have food available to purchase? Our Snack Shack offers pizza, nachos, drinks, candy, and more at all locations. What days are the least busy? Mondays and Tuesdays are usually less busy; weekends and Glow nights are the busiest. Do you sell gift cards? Gift cards are available in-store and online. They never expire and can be used for admission, food, merchandise, or parties. When are refunds processed? Refunds appear within 3-5 business days from approval. Requests should follow our cancellation policies. Group Events & Facility Rentals How do I book a group event at Aerosports? Book via our website or call your local park. A 25% deposit secures your date. Our team will guide you through the process. What's the minimum number of jumpers required for group events? 15 jumpers minimum for group event pricing. Use code GROUPBOOKING25 for 25% off groups of 15+ jumpers. Is a jumpers list required for group events? Yes, submit a complete list two weeks prior. Waivers completed in advance speed up check-in. What's included in the group jump package? Jump time for all, complimentary Aero socks, plus optional add-ons like private rooms, food, extended time, and special activities. What's included in the facility rental? Facility rental includes: complimentary jump socks (up to 220 people), exclusive access to the facility, party rooms, tableware, dedicated staff, catering options, perfect for corporate events, birthdays, fundraisers, and more. How do I best prepare for my group event or facility rental? Confirm booking with deposit, submit jumpers list, complete waivers, stay in touch with our team, plan arrival, consider add-ons. Our team will guide you for a seamless experience.

Important Information Safety Rules & Guidelines Your safety is our top priority. Please review these important rules and guidelines before enjoying our facilities. 🎥 Watch Our Safety Video First! Before you jump, learn how to stay safe! Watch our comprehensive safety video to ensure you have the best and safest experience at AeroSports. ▶ Watch Safety Video Now Assumption of Risk Participation in trampoline activities is an inherently dangerous recreational activity and involves a level of risk that each participant must evaluate on their own. By using this facility, you are assuming a risk of serious injury or death. For safety, you should be in good health and free from high blood pressure, heart, back or neck problems, motion sickness, or other conditions that could be aggravated by jumping on a trampoline. Expectant mothers should not jump. ⚠ WARNING! Catastrophic injury, paralysis or even death may result from failing to follow the rules below and due to inherent risks, sometimes even if all rules are followed. Liability Waiver In order to have access to the facility, all guests of Aerosports are bound by the liability waiver and release set forth in the terms of the Agreement that must be executed upon admittance to this facility. Those under the age of 18 must have the Agreement completed and signed by their parent or legal guardian. Safety Rules Critical! 🚫 Somersaults Not Recommended Landing on the head or neck can cause serious injury, paralysis or death, even when landing in the middle of the mat. Jumpers must maintain total control of their bodies while jumping. ⚡ Do Not Double Bounce Do not double bounce. This can cause loss of control and unexpected height, leading to potential injuries. 👕 Wear Appropriate Clothing Clothes must be free of hanging zippers, belts, strings and jewelry must be removed. Pockets must be empty and have nothing in mouth (e.g. gum, candy or other). 👀 Be Alert Be aware and considerate of those around you. Jump with people that are of similar size. 🧗 No Climbing Do not climb on walls or netting and do not touch basketball apparatus. 🚫 No Drugs or Alcohol Do not use a trampoline when under the influence of alcohol or drugs. 🤝 No Rough-Housing No tackling, pushing or other activity that may unnecessarily interfere with the jumping or concentration of another participant. 📋 This is a listing of our general rules. It is not an all inclusive list, and the rules are subject to change.
